About Tom

Tom McGee is a commercial developer and broker with a unique understanding of and background in Missouri law. Tom has been involved in various roles in the development, construction and real estate industries since the late 1980s and brings a wide range of experience to VanTrust. As Vice President of Development, Tom will assist with commercial development programs at VanTrust as well as the company's efforts to secure acquisition and development opportunities in and around Kansas City's region.

At VanTrust, Tom's focus includes the development of 51st & Oak, a mixed-use development, East Village Project in downtown Kansas City and other urban infill opportunities such as Washington Park. His primary responsibilities are to ensure that VanTrust's short and long term development goals and objectives are met through proper site selection, acquisition, and development of new, build-to-suit and speculative opportunities.

Prior to joining VanTrust, Tom spent the last 25 years with DST Realty and has commercial real estate development experience around the nation in a wide variety of product types including office, industrial, and multifamily. At DST Realty, Tom developed office and/or industrial projects in Kansas City, Missouri; Hartford, Connecticut; Sacramento, California and Toronto, Canada. Tom also assisted in the development of the Kirkwood residential project just south of the Country Club Plaza.

Tom is a graduate of Georgetown University with a degree in Government and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law. He holds a Missouri Broker license and is a Member of the Missouri Bar. Tom is a lifelong Kansas City resident, actively involved in numerous civic and not-for-profit organizations. He is currently Chair of the Board of Trustees of Rockhurst High School and is a board member of the Truman Library Institute.
