About Ryan

As Director of Development Services for VanTrust, Ryan Hackenmiller works closely with the development team to ensure the successful delivery of projects in a variety of product types. Ryan is results focused with a passion for setting and achieving targets supported by sound planning.

Prior to joining VanTrust, Ryan worked as project management lead at an integrated design-build construction company where he was responsible for managing design teams, budgets, schedules, and overall project execution with the specific goals of each unique client in mind. In addition to clients, he also assisted both in-house and third-party development teams with preliminary site review, due diligence, and overall project feasibility. At VanTrust, Ryan's past experiences and success demonstrate his commitment to creating working relationships that value mutual respect, promote effective collaboration, and safeguard the overall success of each project goal.

Ryan is a graduate of Iowa State University with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Engineering. He is recognized by the U.S. Green Building Council as a LEED Accredited Professional, and is actively involved with the Design-Build Institute of America.
