About Tatiana

Tatiana Capeles relocated to Texas from Ohio in 2016 to be closer to her family. Shortly after her arrival, she joined VanTrust as Office Administrator for the Dallas office, providing executive support for all development processes from pursuit to closing. Additionally, Tatiana assists in marketing and event planning, and ensures that the office functions effectively and efficiently. She is also working to obtain her real estate license.

Tatiana comes to VanTrust with extensive experience in executive support and corporate events. While living in Ohio, she managed an office for a commercial banking group as well as a nursing home specializing in memory care. Paired with her bilingual skillset, she has a long-term goal of growing and cultivating the Latin American commercial real estate market.

Tatiana earned her Associate's diploma in Administrative Information Technology from Stark State College of Technology. With a passion for salsa dancing, theater and singing, she frequently volunteers at her local church in the drama department. She also loves cooking, riding motorcycles and spending time with her family.
